1. The Federacion de los Circulos Regionales is a Jewish Communist organization in Argentina comprising approximately 3,000 members, most of whom are natives of Eastern Poland. The territory is now included in the Soviet Republics of Ukraine and Byelorussia. Several hundred of them, however, came from Bessarabia, Rumania.

2. Several members of the Federacion de los Circulos Regionales are members of the Argentine Communist Party (Language Committee), are leaders of the Switlo group of Ukrainian Communists ([REDACTED]), and are also active in various other Communist organizations. The president and the most influential leader of this organization is Wolf Guber.

3. Little relationship is maintained between the subject organization and the Union Central Israelita Polaca Argentina, the most important organization of Polish Jews in Argentina, which devotes itself almost exclusively to raising funds for Jewish relief. However, the Federacion maintains close relationship with the Communist Comité de Ayuda a Polonia ([REDACTED]), the Maria Konopnicka Society ([REDACTED]), and the newspaper Polska Wyznolona ([REDACTED]).
